Dedication . . .

IN THE PAST THREE YEARS WE HAVE COME IN CONTACT WITH PEOPLE FROM ALL WALKS OF LIFE. ALL WHO HAVE IN SOME WAY PLAYED A PART IN HELPING US REACH OUR GOAL. SOME HAVE LOOKED TO US FOR CARE AND GUIDANCE, WHILE WE HAVE LOOKED TO OTHERS FOR KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING.

TO ONE OF THESE GREAT WOMEN, DR. CATHERINE MACFARLANE, WHO HAS PLAYED AN ACTIVE PART IN THE ACCOMPLISHMENT OF OUR CLIMB, WE DEDICATE THIS, OUR YEARBOOK.

To give one's life on weary days and hopeless;
To give one's life, hour after hour, and be Ready to give again, again, is harder
Than to give it in a moment, gloriously.

Dr. Catherine B. MacFarlane

Graduate of the University of Pennsylvania School of Biology. Received her medical degree at Woman's Medical College Hospital of Philadelphia. She took post graduate study at Johns Hopkins and at the universities of Berlin, Vienna, Paris and Stockholm. At present she is research professor of gynecology at Woman's Medical College Hospital of Pennsylvania.

THE HOSPITAL

Here is the haven: pain touched with soft magic:

Errands all of mercy. Here the sweet

Ministry of white hands to meet the tragic

Miracle of death, the brave defeat.

Here is the harbor, builded for the broken,

Echoing halls where gentleness has trod.

Here our eyes are blinded by a token . . .

A shaft of glory from the throne of God.

WILFRED FUNK

THE HARKNESS HOUSE

During our first six months in training, we learned to love and appreciate our School of Nursing, because of its past history as a barn, which was to us a novelty.

In Harkness House, located in the heart of historical Market Square, Germantown, we spent our off-duty hours. Here we became acquainted with and lived among our fellow students. We will miss its halls of laughter and nooks of rest.

Edythe Gring Kistler
R.N., B.S.

*Former Director
School of Nursing and Nursing Service*

On arrival to the Woman's Medical College Hospital School of Nursing we were greeted by a woman who assisted and guided us through the beginning wilderness of our mountain climb.

Today, we stand at the top and look back with reverence to the significant part played by her in the goal we have now attained.

"Gratitude is the memory of the heart."

Now that you girls are leaving at last to enjoy the full realization of your careers, congratulations to each of you. Whatever your future plans are, may they all be a deep reflection of the many months you have spent here. It is with a mingling of sadness and joy that you leave your student days behind, but I know one of your greatest wishes is to serve in the way which is best.

"Willingness to be taught what we do not know is the sure pledge of growth both in knowledge and wisdom."

—Blair

KYLE LARAMORE

We feel happy to have climbed this mountain with you as our guide. Your assistance in all our endeavors will always be remembered. As we go our separate ways, to all of us our memories of you will be cherished.

*If just one friend is ours to share
To understand, believe and care.
Then life is sweet, complete, and true,
Because of just one friend—like you!*

Memory

With fear in our hearts, we packed our foot-lockers and suitcases and set out on our three-months psychiatric affiliation.

Each girl was a little apprehensive from tales told by preceding groups, but soon our apprehension turned to confidence. With keys in our pockets, and a set of "do's and don'ts," we worked with and for our patients.

With our curriculum and extra curricular activities, we passed our days. Hydro-therapy, electric-shock treatment and occupational therapy became daily routine, as did our parties, picnics, and movies planned for the patients.

We worked, we studied, we learned, and we enjoyed every moment of the time, which seemed to pass all too quickly.

Lane

Oh! how we hated the thoughts of leaving for "Muni." For the first time in two years, each of us must leave our fellow classmates and go to spend two months at Philadelphia Hospital for Contagious Diseases, out in the midst of all those graveyards.

The gown and hand technique we felt would become monotonous, but to our surprise they became the major part of the nursing procedures used in the care of the rare and interesting cases we encountered.

Our first ambulance ride was to each an event which will be part of the many memories we have of "Muni."

Brighter Paths

. . . along the way

Our ways were not all dark and burdened with responsibilities. We paused, among the clearings to relax and enjoy hours of gaiety, which we've enjoyed together, at our long remembered dances.

"Soft is the music that would charm forever."

Adelma E. Mooth
R.N., B.S., M.A.

Directress of Nurses

Our present directress, Miss Adelma E. Mooth, filled the position in August, 1947, as our new guide through our third year of training. The obstacles, which confronted us along our last endless steps to the top, were more easily shouldered because of her wisdom in leading us.

A Nurse's

Prayer

The world grows brighter year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere
Puts on her apron, and smiles, and sings,
And keeps on doing the same old things.
Taking the temperatures, giving the pills
To remedy mankind's numerous ills,
Feeding the babies, answering the bells,
Being polite with a heart that rebels.
Longing for home, and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile,
Blessing the new-born baby's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are stilled in death.

Taking the blame for all mistakes,
Oh, dear! what a lot of patience it takes,
Going off duty at seven o'clock,
Tired, discouraged and ready to drop,
But called out to help at seven-fifteen,
With woe in the heart that must not be seen,
Morning and evening, noon and night,
Just doing it over and hoping it's right.
When we report off to cross the bar,
Dear Lord, will You give us just one little star
To wear on the cap of our uniform new—
In the ward above, where the head nurse is You.

JANICE ALETHEA BURNS

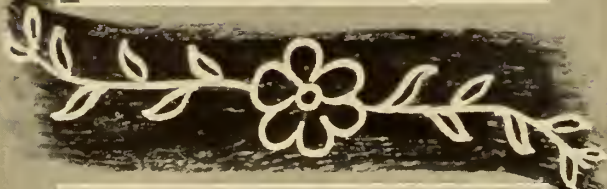

Jan

Oh, Gosh!

"Just a Wearyin' For You"

LEWISTOWN, PA.

Energetic, a good listener and everyone's friend. Has a way of winding people around her finger. Natural curls and turned-up nose always help the matter.

MARIE YOLANDA DELISO

DeLeese

No—not 3-11!

"Smoke Gets in your Eyes"

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

True to the expression, "good things come in small packages." We've had more than one surprise from this dark-haired bundle of fun.

MARIE KRAMER DETWILER

Det Kid—let me tell you!

"Near You"

LINE LEXINGTON, PA.

"Det's" heart has been pushed to the domestic side; aprons, rugs, doilies and booties made for her and another cutie.

GENEVIEVE VERONICA GALINIS

Jenny Visiting my Uncle

"In the Moon Mist"

MT. CARMEL, PA.

"Jenny's" love life is as smooth and beautiful as her hair. Overheard her asking "Doc" how to make spaghetti, wonder why?

ARLENE MAE GODSHALL

Gotch He made me so mad!

"Mary Lou, I Love You"

LANSDALE, PA.

Tall, dark and pretty Gotch has us all wondering—will she and Chris—or won't they? 'Tis a lucky fellow he is that gets her. She's a good listener and a good friend—and a good nurse!

ALICE ELIZABETH HADFIELD

Al Wait till you hear this—

"I'll Always be in Love with You"

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Jivey and groovey, that's our Al. Knows all the latest songs—and where Frannie is playing them. Has the cutest dimples.

CLEO ATHEA H. KENNEDY

Chloe You kids drive your Mom crazy

"The Very Thought of You"

MILLVILLE, PA.

No matter how busy, there was always time to send that card and buy another gift. "Chloe" was Mom to all of us—Three cheers for the Irish, we say!

MAE KOELZER

Rock

Say Kid

"There's a Shanty in the Town"

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Tall, lovable blonde—loves to dance and just despises men. Oh yeah? Her dry humor causes her listeners to go into hysterics.

GERTRUDE ALICE LEVIS

Al Do you think I'd tell you if I was?
 "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now"

MEDIA, PA.

Here's another one who let those servicemen's letters dwindle down to an O.A.O.
 A night with "Al" and Charles, and his sense of humor is good entertainment; need we ask why the ring?

DOROTHY MARIE MCFARLAND

Mac Night Duty, Ach!!

"Nature Boy"

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Blonde, nice looking kid who loves fun and a good argument. She makes evenings at the Oaks prone to be interesting.

MILDRED HELEN MORRIS

Milly No kidding!!

"Overhead the Moon is Beaming"

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Gullible, gabby and gay sums up Milly nicely. She's given us many fun-filled hours. Ed's future should be bright with a girl like Milly by his side.

EMMA MARY NICHOLSON

Emmy Look, you!

"It's a Sin to Tell a Lie"

SCRANTON, PA.

Lots of fun we did have teasing Emmy about her Scranton accent and the "Hach buses." Now she keeps us guessing as to whether or not she'll give it up for the ways of a Philadelphian.

IVA MARIE ROUDABUSH

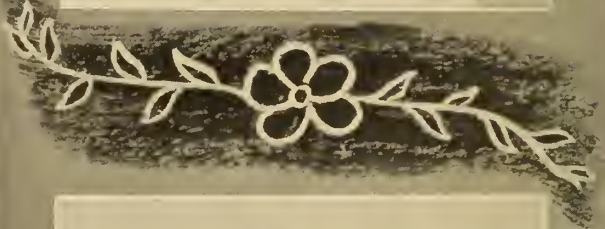

Bugs Bunny

And then—!

"Four Leaf Clover"

FREESVILLE, PA.

Nursing is in this girl's heart. Not only does she help a patient, but anyone who's morale may be low. Luck to the lovely Iva.

MARY KATHRYN UHLER

Tall, cute and healthy looking with sniffles all the time. Could she have an allergy to love?

ANNA LOUISE WRIGHT

Wheezer

My Heavens!

"Star Dust"

QUEEN, PA.

"Wheezer's" laugh can be heard for miles—we have proof. She's a whizz on duty, gets things done. Need help pursuing that frat pin, Wright?

PROPHECY

As we travelers of "48" stand thru the clearing mist around and on top of this Mountain, a living monument of our three years achievement, we pause a moment to gaze back and reminisce. In this climb we found ourselves thrown into different surroundings and companies, which we now realize have brought both joys and tribulation.

The thorns which strewed our paths, the rugged rocks, the dark and unexplored woods, and the drab and weary days have added to our now accomplished goal. This journey has sprung roots in our hearts which time can neither change nor destroy.

Now we can look forward to our place among the multitude. Standing here looking into the future we see Janice Burns settling down to a quiet and peaceful life as the wife of a minister, using her professional knowledge to administer to his congregation's physical needs.

Over there! We see Marie DeLiso holding a black bag with the insignia of a public health nurse about to make another routine call.

We see Marie Detwiler Wert's radiant smile as she and Bob take their first set of twins from the hospital.

Oh yes! Genevieve Galinis is sending her Boston Cream Pie filling to the city laboratory to be analyzed before serving it to Joe.

Then too, there is Arlene Godshall now the devoted wife of Chris working her 3-11 shift in the nursery, Beside Alice Hadfield we note an unrecognized figure of a man. We're wondering, could it be Frannie?

The day will come when Cleo Kennedy will enter the portal of a well known college for the furthering of her nursing career.

The mist is raising and Mae Koelzer can be seen searching for the "one and only" who will fill her hours with contentment.

Here comes Mr. Jordan and by his side there is none other than his blue-eyed wife, Alice (Levis).

Attention please! A grand review is passing and we are proud to recognize the commander of this Naval group as our Dorothy McFarland.

At 7:00 A.M. we see a sleepy gentleman waiting in the hospital lobby for his wife, Mildred Morris, to come off duty.

At a garden gate standing in her printed apron is Emma Nicholson looking eagerly down the street for Tommy to come home.

The cock crows and Iva Roudabush is making ready to start off for her day's work at the city hospital.

At a meat market Mary Uhler is buying Lebanon baloney for Lloyd's lunch bucket.

A car drives up and Mary Valerio steps out to attend the nurses' alumnae meeting.

Bathing on the beach on her off hours is Dolores Ver Meeren. My, what a nice sun tan!

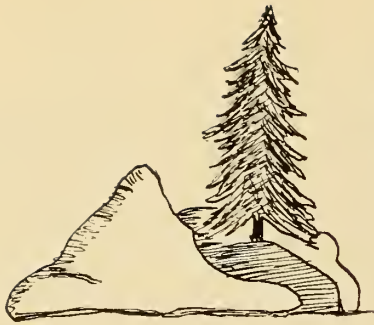

Hanging out pink sheets at her bungalow in the country is Florence Ballaron Winchester who is attempting to keep Eddie Jr. out of the clothes basket.

The R.N. magazine for the month features our Louise Wright as its cover girl.

The mist has lifted and the sun is shining upon each of us as we bid farewell to one another and start our separate paths taking us thru the mystery of the years.

+ + + CLASS WILL

This is the Last Will and Testament of the Class of '48 of the Woman's Medical College Hospital of Philadelphia, Pa.

We leave and bequeath all property which we possess or to which we may be entitled at the time of our graduation, to our dear friends we leave behind.

We appoint the said Miss Bell, Mrs. Hirst, Sophie, Gertrude and Annie to be our sole executrices and request that they shall not be required to file an inventory.

We ask that our belongings be disposed of in the following order: Namely, real estate, personal property and mixed property.

FLORENCE BALLARON WINCHESTER leaves—

Real Estate: Nursery nights to anyone who'll tend to more than one baby at a time.

Personal Property: Her artistic ability.

Mixed Property: Gracefulness in an evening gown and her love for teas.

JANICE BURNS leaves—

Real Estate: The largest closet in room No. 209 to 111.

Personal Property: The preacher's son's telephone number.

Mixed Property: Her way to get along with the supervisors.

MARIE DETWILER leaves—

Real Estate: The air bubbles in the plaster of her room.

Personal Property: Her long eyelashes to the bashful.

Mixed Property: Her love for food and dancing.

GENEVIEVE GALINIS leaves—

Real Estate: Her clothes sprinkler to Harkness House.

Personal Property: Her bottle of feosol to Malcolm.

Mixed Property: Her uncle's address to all "out-of-townners."

ALICE HADFIELD leaves—

Real Estate: The "new look" to all of those with bow legs.

Personal Property: With a book entitled, "Catch Him!"

Mixed Property: Sarcasm behind forever.

MAE KOELZER leaves—

Real Estate: Oaks and Brookline on the Boulevard.

Personal Property: Plain hair-do's to Lyness.

Mixed Property: Fairy feet and dancing slippers to Arthur Murray.

DOROTHY MCFARLAND leaves—

Real Estate: Broken and lost watches.

Personal Property: Broken plaster and room 104 to the termites.

Mixed Property: Pediatric nites to all lovers of children, and her cream shampoo to Michelmores.

and TESTAMENT + + +

LOUISE WRIGHT leaves—

Real Estate: A new window shade to room 217.

Personal Property: Her hilarious howl to the meek.

Mixed Property: A note on, "How to obtain a fraternity pin while living in a girls dormitory."

MARIE DELISO leaves—

Real Estate: Her purple wall to anyone who wants it.

Personal Property: Her curly hair to Troutman.

Mixed Property: 3-11 forever.

MILDRED MORRIS leaves—

Real Estate: Her "do unto others" sign to Harkness House.

Personal Property: Her suit patterns to anyone who'd like to learn.

Mixed Property: Her gullibility forever!

ARLENE GODSHALL leaves—

Real Estate: Her 3rd floor room to anyone that can fit in it.

Personal Property: Her 5:30 phone calls to all those on nites.

Mixed Property: Leaves her neat clothes to all lovers of fashion.

MARY UHLER leaves—

Real Estate: Peter Lawford's pictures to any of his fans.

Personal Property: Her student uniforms to the thin—for camping purposes.

Mixed Property: Sense of humor and witty remarks to those who work on the fourth.

MARY VALERIO leaves—

Real Estate: Her lounging chair with the mice holes included to the upholsterers.

Personal Property: Mouths gaping as she takes her Hudson and Sheared Beaver along.

Mixed Property: Her recipe for Italian spaghetti.

DOLORES VER MEEREN leaves—

Real Estate: The heat in room 209 to the kitchen.

Personal Property: Her notebook to those who can't read.

Mixed Property: Her crocheting, knitting and embroidery to someone to finish.

CLEO KENNEDY leaves—

Real Estate: Her automobile to Brooks.

Personal Property: Her budget book to all students.

Mixed Property: The shopping trips to the energetic.

ALICE LEVIS leaves—

Real Estate: Her stocking rack.

Personal Property: Her hope chest to the hopeless.

Mixed Property: Her neatness to the hospital linen closets.

EMMA NICHOLSON leaves—

Real Estate: Her new personality to the shy.

Personal Property: Her waistline to the 150'ers.

Mixed Property: Te 9-0814.

IVA ROUDABUSH leaves—

Real Estate: The knickknacks to the fireplace in 116

Personal Property: Her peaches 'n cream complexion to the mud-packers.

Mixed Property: Her ability to tell short—endless—stories.

As a group we leave to the pre-clinicals:

The enemata pole for use whenever necessary.
